THE HARVEST

A saige style from parcels of Pinot Noir, Syrah, Tempranillo, and Malbec blended with white pressing juice prior to alcoholic fermentation. Fermented at low temperatures to retain freshness and complexity.

The 2023 harvest was off to a delayed start. Bud break was a few weeks later than usual, but a warm and dry summer allowed the fruit to ripen beautifully.

“This is such a happy wine that takes you right to summer time. My goal with every wine is to achieve balance, and though this wine is a semi-sweet, I want to make sure the acidity brings you a refreshing flavor profile and finish.”
